The Beast in the Garden by David Baron

In this spellbinding tale of man and beast, award-winning journalist David Baron chronicles the City of Boulder's struggles to coexist with its wild mountain lions. The book serves as a cautionary tale for communities now struggling to live with lions, wolves, bears and other animals.

David Baron has written for the Boston Globe, Los Angeles Times, Reader's Digest, and has reported for the National Public Radio for more than fifteen years. He lives in Boston and Boulder.

I'm with STUPID

One Man. One Woman. 10,000 Years of Misunderstanding Between the Sexes Cleared Right Up

by Gene Weingarten and Gina Barreca

I'm with Stupid is the first significant book about men and women actually written by a man and a woman. It's an extremely funny extended argument between Gene Weingarten and Gina Barreca.

Gene Weingarten is a humor columnist for the Washington Post and Gina Barreca is a University of Connecticut professor of feminism and English literature. They did not meet until after the book was published.

Good Debt, Bad Debt by Jon Hanson

Interested in improving your financial life? Good Debt, Bad Debt is about embracing the reality of where you are financially and working to improve your position by developing a plan, instead of allowing yourself to be controlled by your emotions and impulse spending.

Jon Hanson spent over twenty years in real estate and is now a full-time writer and public speaker who lectures to audiences on many personal finance topics.
